The Haberdashers’ Aske’s Boys’ School

Elstree

7+ Entrance Examination

Sample Paper

ENGLISH GRAMMAR

Full Name..............................................................

Examination Number ..............................................
Here are some sentences to make a short story but the sentences are in the wrong order. In the boxes next to each sentence, put a number (1-6) to show the correct order for the story to make sense.

He looked left and right as he crossed the busy road, still holding on to his coin.

After walking up to the till he handed over the money.

As he entered the shop he was excited by all the colourful toys.

Andrew ran down the road with 50p to spend at the shops.

He picked up a small, red car from the crowded shelves.

When he arrived at the toy shop he looked through the window and smiled.
PART II

Copy out the sentences below very carefully and add in any capital letters, commas, question marks and full stops you think are needed.

1. have jack and fred finished their work

2. mr jones bought eggs flour and butter at the shops on saturday

Put a circle around the word that does not mean the same as the others:

1. rotate fall turn

2. bend fold jump

3. ask complain moan

4. stay remain leave

5. skip run sprint

6. ask remind question