| How to deal with issues during the test | It is impossible to plan for every scenario. Whatever action you take, pupil safety must always be your first consideration.

In the following circumstances, you will need to stop the test either for an individual pupil or for the whole cohort:

• the print is illegible in the answer booklet
• an incorrect test has been administered
• a fire alarm goes off
• a pupil is unwell
• a pupil needs to leave the test room during the tests
• a pupil is caught cheating.

If you need to stop the test:

• make a note of the time
• make sure pupils are kept under test conditions and that they are supervised
• if they have to leave the room, ensure they don’t talk about the test
• speak to your test co-ordinator or a senior member of staff for advice on what to do next.

You should brief your headteacher on how the incident was dealt with once the test is over. |
| --- | --- |
| What to do at the start of the test | Check that pupils don’t have mobile phones or other disruptive items.
Check that pupils don’t have any materials or equipment that may give them extra help.
Check that seating is appropriately spaced and that no pupil can see another pupil’s answer booklet.
Ensure that each pupil has a copy of Paper 2: spelling. |
| What to say at the start of the test | It is important to brief pupils fully at the start of each test. You should use this script to introduce Paper 2: spelling:

• This is the key stage 2 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test Paper 2: spelling.
• You should have Paper 2: spelling in front of you.
• You will need a blue / black pen or a dark pencil and you may use a rubber for this test. If rubbers are not provided, you should tell the pupils that they may cross out any answer that they wish to change.
• Write your name and school name on the front of your test paper. (If any pupil’s name differs to the name provided during pupil registration, instruct the pupil to write both names on the paper.)
• To make sure your answers can be marked, don’t write in the grey areas, on the barcode or on the lines at the top and bottom of the edge of the page and don’t crumple your test paper.
• If you want to change your answer, put a line through the response you don’t want the marker to read.
• If you have any questions during the test, you should put your hand up and wait for someone to come over to you. Remember, I can’t help you answer any of the test questions.
• You must not talk to each other. |
